About Us

The Firm

Ali Sami Aljaziri CPAs ("the Firm") is registered on 17 Rabi I, 1439 (December 6, 2017) under license number 573. The Firm offers professional accounting services including audit, zakat and tax, and advisory services. The Firm was founded by Ali Aljaziri, who has been in the audit profession for quite some time, and is the result of previous challenging times spent providing services to clients. Ali is a Certified Public Accountant by Saudi Organization for Certified Public Accountants (License No. 573) and by Washington State Board of Accountancy (License No. 35393). He started his career with Deloitte - Khobar and gained considerable experience. He obtained his Master's degree in Accounting from Bowling Green State University in the U.S. and his Bachelor's degree in Accounting from King Faisal University in Saudi Arabia.

Our Values

We believe in committing to the highest standards of professionalism, trust and honesty. We strive to be transparent and objective in our client and internal interactions. Every engagement has different challenges that require experience. We strive to help our clients transform the way they work. Our client's success is our success.

Services

External Audit

We provide a comprehensive range of external audit services in accordance with International Standards on Auditing endorsed in Saudi Arabia. Our mission is to provide outstanding auditing services to our clients.

Zakat & Tax

We provide a full range of zakat & tax services to our clients. We will help you in complying with zakat & tax regulations, filling the required returns, and agreeing them with the General Authority of Zakat & Tax.

Advisory

We also provide other related professional accounting services to our clients.
